

This cookie policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and your choices regarding cookies on our website.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of data stored on your device (computer or mobile device) when you browse the internet. Cookies are created by websites you visit, and they enhance your browsing experience by remembering your preferences or enabling certain website features.

We utilise cookies for personalising content and advertisements, incorporating social media functionalities, and analysing website traffic. Additionally, we share information regarding your website usage with our social media, advertising, and analytics partners. They may combine this data with other information you've provided or that they've collected through their services.

Our website employs various types of cookies, including those placed by third-party services featured on our pages. You have the ability to modify or withdraw your consent from our Cookie Declaration on the website at any time. For more information about our identity, how to reach us, and our personal data processing practices, please refer to our Privacy Policy.

Essential cookies: These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They enable basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. Our website cannot function properly without these cookies.

Analytical cookies: These cookies allow us to analyse how visitors use our website, which helps us improve the user experience. We use tools like Google Analytics to collect information about website traffic and usage patterns.

Functional cookies: These cookies enable enhanced functionality and personalization, such as remembering your preferences or settings. For example, we may use cookies to remember your language preferences or region.

Advertising cookies: These cookies are used to deliver advertisements relevant to your interests. They may be used by advertising networks to track your browsing activity across different websites.

Unclassified cookies: Unclassified cookies are cookies that we are in the process of classifying, together with the providers of individual cookies.

How we use cookies:

We use cookies for a variety of purposes, including:

Email newsletters related cookies

This site offers newsletter or email subscription services and cookies may be used to remember if you are already registered and whether to show certain notifications which might only be valid to subscribed/unsubscribed users.

Forms related cookies

When you submit data to us through a form such as those found on contact pages, cookies may be set to remember your user details for future correspondence.

Third party Cookies

We use only a few third-party cookies. We use [e.g. Facebook, LinkedIn, Google's] pixels to track our marketing efforts. These cookies are set by trusted third-party service providers to enhance our website's functionality and offer additional features to our users. Please note that these third-party cookies are subject to their respective providers' privacy policies. We do not have control over the information collected or how it is used by these providers. We recommend reviewing the privacy policies of these third-party services for more information about their data processing practices.

Your choices regarding cookies

You have the option to accept or reject cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser settings to reject cookies if you prefer. However, please note that rejecting cookies may affect your ability to access certain features of the website.

What information do we know about you?

We don't request or require you to provide personal information to access our website. As noted above, we may receive your IP address and user agent automatically.

Transfers outside of the UK or EU

Where we transfer your data outside of the EU or UK we will ensure your data is protected to the level you would expect. We have assessed the risk of using these cookies and have established that there is no appreciable risk to you and only minimal impact on your data protection rights.
